

The Canadian Centre for the Study of Co-operatives presents

CO-OP CONVERSATIONS

A casual online gathering for co-operative professionals to learn from others in the field and exchange information

COOPERATION: A POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, AND SOCIAL THEORY FEATURING BERNARD E. HARCOURT

Date: Wednesday, February 7

Time: 12:00 - 1:00 PM CST

(Saskatchewan time)

Where: on Zoom (free to attend)

Canadian co-operative practitioners have led the way with different forms of cooperation (worker, consumer, and producer co-ops, mutuals, credit unions, mutual aid) for centuries now. But the times have changed, and the justifications and motivations as well--and it may be time to rethink the political, economic, and social grounds for cooperation.

In this Co-op Conversation, Dr. Bernard Harcourt will exchange ideas about how to rethink cooperation in our interdependent world marked by global climate change.
